

LAW/ADMIN.
OF JUSTICE

My

“LACC professors and tutors are extremely helpful.
The college is teaching me
the skills needed to achieve my goal of becoming a police officer.”

—Maria
LACC Major:
Administration of Justice

Make it yours.

The City's College.
LACityCollege.edu

LACC LAW/ ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE

Department of Law and Administration of Justice

ABOUT

The Law & Administration of Justice Department includes the Administration of Justice program, the Paralegal Studies program, the Pathway to Law School curriculum, and universal law classes, which include Business Law, Civil Rights Law, and Street Law.

- The Administration of Justice program is a “hands-on” forensic-oriented program that teaches students the fundamental concepts and tasks of law enforcement and concentrates on investigative skills.
- The Paralegal Studies program provides students who are interested in a career as an employee in a law office or courthouse the opportunity to assist in the performance of legal services in civil and criminal matters.
- The Pathway to Law School curriculum is designed for students who aspire to attend law school. The Pathway curriculum is made up of eight multidisciplinary courses to prepare students academically for success in law school and with a career based on a law degree.

FACILITIES

Department classes are held within the newly-renovated Holmes Hall which houses a dedicated computer lab. Although Holmes Hall is one of the older buildings on campus, it is truly one of the nicer learning spaces on campus. Within Holmes Hall, the Department has a dedicated computer lab.

HIGHLIGHTS

The Paralegal Program at Los Angeles City College is approved by the American Bar Association. It is one of two Paralegal Programs within the Los Angeles Community College District that has this distinction. The Department annually charters the Martin Luther King Jr. Law Society, a student club.

DEGREES & CERTIFICATES

The Law discipline offers an Associate of Arts in Paralegal Studies. The Administration of Justice discipline offers an Associate of Science for Transfer; an Associate of Arts; a Certificate of Achievement in Administration of Justice; an Evidence Specialist Skills Certificate; a Fingerprint Expert Skills Certificate; and a Private Investigations Skills Certificate.

ALUMNI SPOTLIGHT

Justice Vaino Hassan Spencer earned her AA degree from LACC in 1949. She is the first African American woman appointed to a judgeship in California and became a fierce champion of more opportunities for women and people of color in the workforce.

CONTACT

Wilhelm I. Vargas, Department Chair
(323) 953-4000 ext.2754
law.lacitycollege.edu