United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) regulations require that in order for an international student to maintain valid non-immigrant student status (F1), he or she must carry and complete 12 units every semester during the period of study. ALL STUDENTS on an F1 visa/status must be in full-time attendance and show appropriate academic progress. An F1 status student may enroll concurrently at another USCIS approved institution. The student MUST obtain permission from LACC prior to enrolling at any other institution. The student MUST enroll in at least 9 units at LACC to be authorized to enroll concurrently at another institution.
