

LaunchPad Solo for Readers & Writers Getting Started

1. Make sure you're registered for TUTOR 001 (Section #11083)
2. When you're ready to work on LaunchPad, click on this link:
<https://www.macmillanhighered.com/launchpadsolo/readwrite/14358424>
3. Register or log in (if this is your first time, enter the Access Code that was emailed to you)
4. Complete LearningCurve activities (worth 1 hour/each) at your convenience throughout the semester

What to do in LaunchPad

- When you enter the Writers' Block LaunchPad course, you'll see a list of units in blue
- Get started with the "Welcome" unit, and then you can work on any unit you like
- For each unit, you should spend about 20 minutes reading the introduction and study pages before beginning the LearningCurve activity, which should take about 40 minutes

Getting FYE or Course Credit for LaunchPad

- One hour of FYE or course credit is awarded for the successful completion of each LearningCurve activity
- To complete a LearningCurve activity, you must reach the target score of 480 points
- You can confirm completion of LearningCurve activities in the LaunchPad gradebook; you receive one full point in the gradebook for each LearningCurve activity you complete
- LaunchPad hours are added to time spent in Writers' Block tutoring sessions and workshops, and a report of total attendance hours is provided to professors every 4 weeks
- LaunchPad is available for credit through the last week of classes (but not finals week)
- Please note: Students whose English instructors are using LaunchPad in their courses will not be able to use LaunchPad at The Writers' Block.

Questions?

Email: witherwa@lacitycollege.edu | Macmillan Support: <https://macmillan.force.com/macmillanlearning/s/>