

A remarkable portrait of the country's deep political divide
MEET ONE OF THE MOST INFLUENTIAL SOCIOLOGISTS OF OUR GENERATION

The LACC Book Program presents

ARLIE HOCHSCHILD

*Why are the very people most damaged by conservative politicians
most likely to vote for them?*

ANGER AND MOURNING ON THE AMERICAN RIGHT

Friday, April 21 • 1:30–2:30pm

Herb Albert Music Center, Room 210

Book Program: Arlie Hochschild – 4/21

Author of “Strangers in their Own Land: Anger and Mourning on the American Right.” Friday, April 21st, 1 – 2:30 PM, Herb Alpert Music Center Rm 210

*The LACC Book Program presents one of the most influential sociologists of our generation: Arlie Hochschild.

Her latest book, STRANGERS IN THEIR OWN LAND explores why Americans voted for Trump.

Please join us Friday for an informal conversation with an excellent, important author.