

Utility connections within Heliotrope will begin in May

We begin installing manholes in this location on May 11th. The area beneath the Clausen Hall overhang will remain open and accessible.

Work continues in the Main Quad through May as we extend the Utilities east towards Vermont.

